

Gift-In-Kind Donation Guide

Thank you for your interest in donating items to Reston Interfaith. Our ability to accept donations depends on current client needs, as well as storage space. Please contact Theresa Rupp, Development Coordinator, at 571-323-9572 to confirm that we are able to accept your generous donation and to schedule a drop-off time. For donations not listed below, please call to verify whether we have a need for the items. Please also ask for copies of our current wish lists.

Car Seats/High Chairs/Cribs

- Must be brand new and come with the safety book.

Cars

- Good working condition; current emissions and safety inspection.
- Need less than $200 in repairs.
- Supply all paperwork and sign the title over to Reston Interfaith.

Food

- Visit our website to view the Wish List for our food pantry.
- Contact Susan Stolpe, Volunteer Manager, at 571-323-9569 about preparing meals or bagged lunches for residents of the Embry Rucker Community Shelter.

Furniture

- We are unable to accept any upholstered furniture or sofa beds.
- May need to wait until Reston Interfaith can arrange a pick-up.

Household Items

- We are able to accept small kitchen items, TVs (digital compatible only—no analog televisions), vacuums, and other small home appliances.
- We are able to accept only new linens.

Toiletries and Cleaning Supplies

- Unopened toiletries and cleaning products only.

Toys

- New toys only.
- Call to verify need and arrange drop-off.

Unfortunately, we are unable to accept cell phones, clothing, shoes, or large household appliances. Below is a list of organizations that can accept your generous donations:
